Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Bob Hofer, who will be retiring after 41 years of service with the South Dakota Department of Transportation (DOT); and,

Whereas, During Bob's career with DOT, he has given exemplary performance in a number of positions including: Tech I, Tech II, Tech III, Tech IV, Senior Tech, Project Engineering, and Transportation Specialist; and,

Whereas, Bob has trained hundreds of DOT employees and contractors on the proper methods of concrete paving and construction project administration; and,

Whereas, Bob will retire on February 21, 2014, to continue "Livin the Dream" with his wife, Priscilla. Bob's plans are to spend more time with his family, travel, fish, work in the garden, and canning; and,

Whereas, Bob will continue his dedication to his church and community by his active participation at the Community Bible Church as a Deacon, as a member of various committees, and with the AWANA program; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to recognize the many accomplishments and years of service of this South Dakotan:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim February 21, 2014 as in South Dakota, and I join his family, friends, and colleagues in offering him best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighteenth Day of February in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Fourteen.

Dennis Daugaard
